Current Georgia state government employees will be subject to State Personnel Board rule provisions.

The Georgia Division of Family and Children Services (DFCS), a division of the Georgia Department of Human Services, investigates reports of child abuse; finds foster and adoptive homes for abused and neglected children; issues SNAP, Medicaid, TANF and childcare assistance to low-income families; helps out-of-work parents get back on their feet; and provides numerous support services and innovative programs to help families in need.

DFCS is working to implement significant child welfare reform through the Blueprint for Change plan, which is the Division's roadmap to improving the lives of the children and families we serve. It is about strong practice, a committed workforce and the authentic internal and external engagement with our staff and the community. The Blueprint for Change has three pillars:

- Practice Model: Adoption of a practice model that will serve as the foundation to keep kids safe and strengthen families; and inclusion of guiding principles, vision and mission statement.
- Robust Workforce Development: Increased staffing and expertise for Child Welfare and Family Independence; research-based caseload ratios; mentoring for supervisors; improved compensation based on proven competency; and development of a career path.
- Constituent Engagement: Creation of advisory boards at state, regional and local levels; organized "roadshows" to engage the public, local stakeholders and media; and build consensus and collaboration among partners, staff, and stakeholders.

DFCS is seeking candidates for the position of Social Services Specialist 2 (Social Services Case Manager 2). This position reports to the Social Services Supervisor and will be based in Houston County, Perry, Georgia. The successful candidate will be motivated and passionate about changing the lives of children and families, brings a deep knowledge of child welfare and foster care placement services from a public/private perspective. The incumbent will be able to work in partnership with stakeholders to achieve the mission, vision and Blueprint for Change of the Division.

GEORGIA ON MY MIND: It Doesn't Get Any Better Than This!

Georgians enjoy a quality of life that would be hard to find in any area across the nation. Lower taxes and a lower cost of living enable you to do more with the money you make and maintain a higher standard of living.

Within Georgia you will find an unlimited supply of recreational and cultural opportunities. Enjoy boating, camping, fishing, golf, hiking, picnicking, swimming, tennis or just relaxing against Georgia's many scenic backdrops. Georgia is a 57,906 square-mile playground filled with natural beauty and immaculate resources. From the mountains to the coast from ballet to baseball, Georgia offers you a livability and quality of life that can help you achieve your dreams.

You're Really Going to Like Screven County

You won't find a better place to live, work, and play than Screven County, Georgia. Screven County is a community that prides itself on its civic-minded citizens, efficient government, excellent schools and active Chamber of Commerce. Whether you are just visiting or planning to relocate your family or your business, you will fall in love with this beautiful community.

Screven County includes the county seat, Sylvania, as well as the towns of Hiltonia, Newington, Oliver and Rocky Ford. Screven County is ideally situated to take advantage of close proximity to large cities which house universities, major hospitals, international trade, and growing job markets. The community is also close enough to take advantage of the Georgia and South Carolina coasts, with beautiful beaches and vacation destinations that are within close driving distance.

The county is located just sixty miles from both Savannah and Augusta, on the Savannah River and just half an hour from Statesboro where Georgia Southern University is located. The Savannah River Parkway, a four lane highway linking Savannah and Augusta, provides access to those cities as well as major interstates. Plantation Airpark is just minutes of flight time from Savannah, Augusta, Charleston, Jacksonville, and even Atlanta.

Combined with easy access to the wider world is the charm of small town living and rich heritage of Southern hospitality. The community has won numerous state and national awards for their very active Better Hometown Program, which operates under the auspices of the Downtown Development Authority of Sylvania. With great schools, active athletics programs, thriving healthcare and senior services, and enough dining and shopping options to keep citizens and visitors well entertained, why wouldn't you want to live here.

With its rich history, wonderful people, abundant natural resources, great location, and high quality of life, Screven County is poised to grow well into the future.
